Dedication to Dr. Larry Inkster

Freshmen
1968-1969

Sophomore
1969-1970

Junior
1970-1971

Senior
1971-1972

Dr. Inkster has been a part of Union's history since his undergraduate days in 1968-1972. He holds many great memories of his experience here during that time. So much so that he officially came back to the school on August 27, 1973 as a member of the staff. Since then he has made many great contributions to the school and sports teams.

U Club

Pi Epsilon Alpha

Here are a few things Dr. Inkster remembers as a student:

We had maid service in Stevenson (when there were three sections to the building-A,B,C wings) when I went to school here. They would come in once a week and clean your room for you (fresh linens, wash cloths and towels, swept, and mopped). The thing was that you had to keep your room clean the rest of the week because if you didn't you would get a "call down" or strike by your R.A. If a person received three "call downs" they would be "campused". When you were campused, you had to be in your room by 7:00 pm at night and could not leave for any reason until classes the next day. It didn't matter whether you were on a sports team or in a club. You were not allowed to leave and they did keep an eye on you to make sure you didn't leave.

Everyone had to go to at least 15 services in the chapel every semester.

Every Sunday you had to dress in nice clothes to eat in the cafeteria. At this point in time the cafeteria was located in the bottom of Centennial Hall. The reason for dressing up was because the RA's and others in administration would serve you and your friends "home-style". Home-style meant they brought food out to you at the table, much like what happens at the Student Christmas Dinner.

Stories from the students

He was my coach and he picks up loose change everywhere. Before we would go eat like at a fast-food restaurant he would drive past the drive through to see if anyone dropped any change while paying. If there was change he would stop the van and get out to pick it up. It embarrassed the hell out of the girl's golf team. Just one of his many quirks! He is the cheapest men I have ever met. Haha!

~Dudley McKenna

Aaron McCollum:

Dr. Inkster has a policy about no food or drinks in the class. If you do have them, you have to pay a quarter. My friend Mike had a water bottle everyday we had class and would never pay a quarter. So Dr. Inkster had ways to get rid of the water bottle. One day, he took the water bottle and asked Mike if he had a quarter. When Mike didn't have one, Dr. Inkster went over to the window and threatened to pour it out. We were on the second floor (who knew who was below us...). Anyway, we were all laughing because we didn't think he'd actually pour it out. He did.

Another time, we were taking a test. Mike had his water bottle under his desk with the cap off. Dr. Inkster strolled by, while we were taking the test, and bumped the water bottle. Water went all over the floor. The funny thing was none of us knew about it until we were getting our stuff to leave. We were all surprised to see water everywhere and Mike's bottle empty. Dr. Inkster just had this mischievous little grin on his face...

I also won't forget the time when I ran into Dr. Inkster while giving a tour. We were in the Bulldog Shop and Dr. Inkster pretended to be President de Rosset. At the same time, he was pretending to shoplift by putting random merchandise into his pockets --with that mischievous grin of his.

Kathy Webb, '01 MA, and Dr. Larry Inkster, '72, '73 MA, were married on August 4, 2009, at the Bass Head Harbor Lighthouse in Bar Harbor, Maine.

This Summer @ Union

Every summer Union welcomes their incoming freshman with orientation. Union holds four of these throughout the summer so every student can register and become oriented. This year students took part in the "Scooby Doo, Where Are You?" theme. The freshman and their parents were greeted by the Union College Scooby Doo cast and then took part in a long day of activities, which included games, prizes, and signing up for their first college courses.

WELCOME WEEKEND 2010

Students get to know one another as they enjoy Thursday's "Cheeseburger in Paradise" event.

Jamie Shepard leads her team to their next activity as James Hyde proudly carries the team flag.

Daniel Moody, Zak Poole, and J.P. Antosh in the lazy river at "Picnic in the Park."

Colin McEacharon drives around in drunk goggles as Chris Adams bravely rides as his passenger.

Below Jamie Greene prepares Anna Hart for The Dating Game. Looks like one of the three bachelors was a pretty lucky guy.

Welcome Weekend is always an exciting time for students. It is their first weekend at college. Union always makes the most of this event by having a planned weekend of activities for the students to help them make friends and get used to college life. Students took part in such events as Alcohol of Fame, The Dating Game, Field Day, and Picnic in the Park.

The candlelit legacy walk helps assure students they are choosing the right path.

Guest speaker Bertice Berry was presented with a small gift from Jane Blair. We all know how Dr. Berry loves chickens.

Students arrive in Ramsey Circle where they will be presented with their medallion.

SGA President Austin Maples initiates Dr. Berry as she accepts her Circles medallion.

Shelby Davis, Mary Martinez, and Brittany McQueen are all smiles as the long weekend ends on a high note.

Gills Cornelis shakes hands with President De Rosset after he accepted the core values of Union College.

Tyler Dunn, Derrick Phipps, and Cody Miller group together after receiving their medals. This is a proud moment for students.

Chris Adams and the rest of Union's faculty and staff sing the Union College Alma Mater to formally close this event.

C.I.R.C.L.E.S. is a student induction ceremony for freshmen held every year here at Union. This traditional ceremony is one of a kind. This year, students began their evening with a dinner served by current students. They then walked to the chapel where they were moved by inspirational speaker Bertice Berry. Their night ended with the Legacy Walk to Ramsey Circle to officially be inducted into Union College. During this ceremony they accepted the core values of Union College:

C-celebrate, I-integrity, R-responsibility, C-civility, L-learning, E-engagement, and S-spirituality.

Record Breaking Numbers for Union College

2000-2010 School Year Enrollment Numbers

Union
#’S
Enrollment

As anyone can tell by the chart above, the 2010 enrollment rate at Union College made a great leap from the numbers of 2000. Through the hard work of Union’s students, faculty, staff and alumni we will continue to grow and prosper in the years to come.

STUDENT AMBASSADORS

Student Ambassadors work hard during Summer Orientations showing new students and their families around campus and answering last minute questions. They give tours to prospective students throughout the year. They show future students and their families the best things about Union and what we, as a campus community, have to offer. They have a love for Union that shines through in their school spirit and they want to share that love and appreciation with everyone.

Looks like Shawn Spoon & Samatha Caldwell would rather be somewhere else.

Educational Development and Advocacy

Council for Exceptional Children (CEC)

CEC is a community of educators who focus on improving the quality of life for exceptional children and their families. They work on effective individualized education for individuals with exceptionalities and collaborate with the community to improve outcomes. Union College has one of the largest CEC chapters in the state of Kentucky. The group consists mostly of graduate students studying in education.

The Little Foxes

Chris Adams (Leo): I really enjoyed working with Mama, Dr. Dan, and Andy Messer. The greatest challenge was to learn my part in a month.

Andy Messer (Horace): For me, the best thing about The Little Foxes was the cast, especially the opportunity to act opposite Rebecca Pettys.

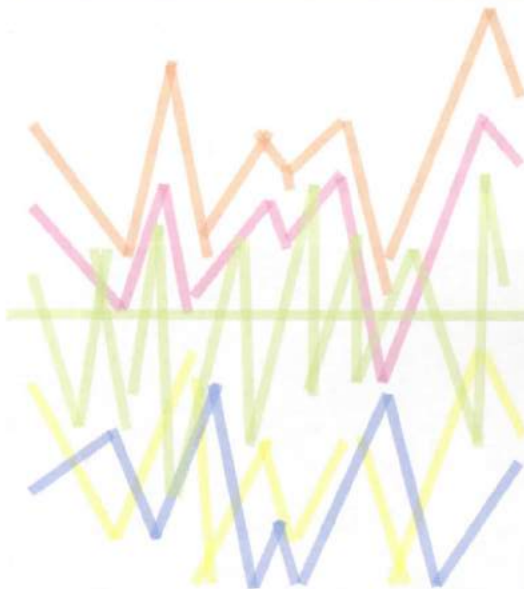

Emily Baker (Alexandra): I really feel that I grew as an actor during this play. I had to push myself beyond my comfort zone. It was great.

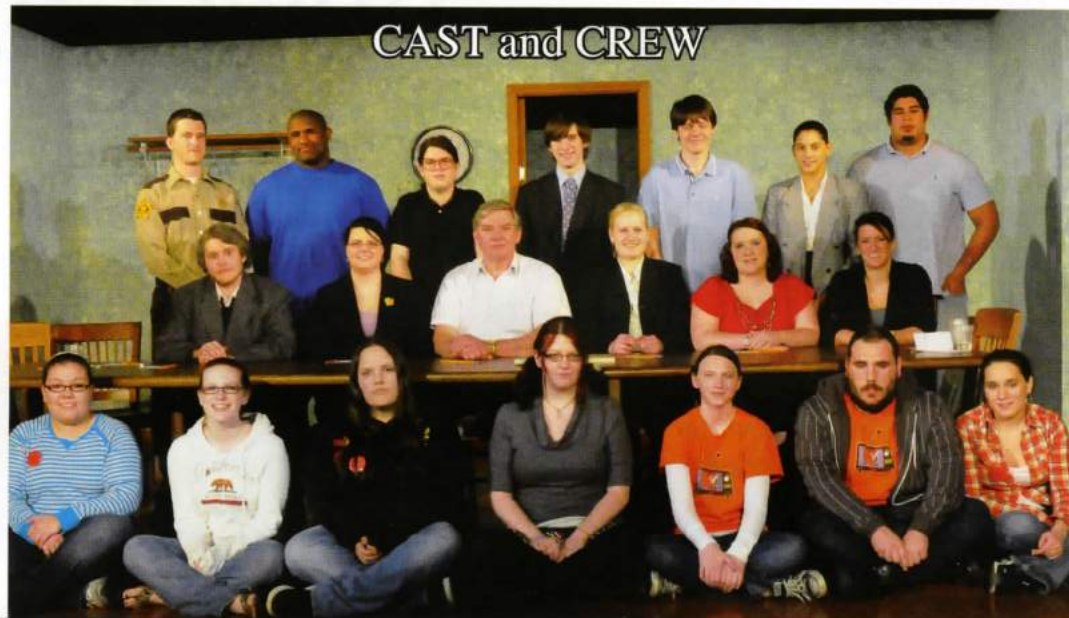

Set in Alabama at the turn of the century, this classic play deals with sibling rivalry, greed, and survival. On one side is a group of ambitious and ruthless characters locked in a power struggle. Ben and Regina are siblings who have been rivals since they were old enough to appreciate power. They use their brother Oscar as a weapon to throw at one another and his son Leo as a dupe in their conquest for power. On the other side is a group of vulnerable and powerless characters caught in the middle. In contrast to these brutal manipulators are lonely and intimidated Birdie, whom Oscar married for her father's cotton fields; tender and innocent Alexandra, Regina's daughter; and Horace, Regina's estranged husband who is suffering from a serious heart condition.

Spring 2011, Reginald Rose's Twelve Angry Jurors

CAST and CREW

Top L to R: Chris Osborne (Gurad, AD, Set Design), Keith Parker (Juror #6), Jason "Chewie" Johnson (Juror #2), Chris Adams (Juror #12), Samson Warren (Juror #1), Patricia Nardy (Juror #11), and Steven Rodriguez (Juror #5)

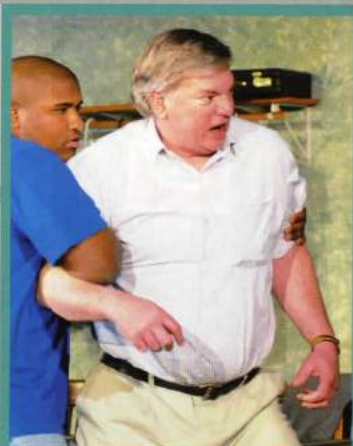

Middle Row: Steven Middleton (Juror #9, Set Design), Krystal Webb (Juror #4), Daniel Covington (Juror #3), Maddie Peterson (Juror #8), Samantha Caldwell (Juror #7), and Cortni Thrasher (Juror #10)

Juror #3 is a very strong, very forceful, extremely opinionated man within whom can be detected a streak of sadism. Also, he is a humorless man who is intolerant of opinions other than his own, and accustomed to forcing his wishes and views upon others.

Juror #8 is a quiet, thoughtful, gentle woman—a woman who sees all sides of every question and constantly seeks the truth. She is a woman of strength tempered with compassion. Above all, she is a woman who wants justice to be done, and will fight to see that it is.

Based on Twelve Angry Men, this play uses a combination of male and female jurors. The play begins with the entrance of the jury; they have just heard testimony in the trial of a 19 year old who has been accused of murdering his father. For eleven jurors, the verdict is a foregone conclusion. For one juror there is sufficient "reasonable doubt" to review the facts of the case. Trapped in a locked room in the heat of a late summer afternoon, the twelve go at it.

One Day Without Shoes

RE: Bonners & Common Partners

Dear Union College Community,

I would like to thank you for the great year we have had. When reflecting back upon the experiences we have shared, two words come to mind: flexibility and acceptance. These are two things our programs have made great strides in throughout this year. Thank you to all who contributed to these efforts and making this year a success.

Best regards,

*Gabrielle Mellendorf,
Common Partners, & Bonner Scholars*

To those continuing on: I hope for positive change and learning from the past to make next year even better.
~Gabrielle Mellendorf~

To the seniors: It's been fun. I hope you continue your journey to become peaceful warriors.
~Gabrielle Mellendorf~

Summer of Service

Summer of Service is required of all students who receive the Bonner Scholarship. Students have to find a non-profit organization to work with over the summer months, which can range from Appalachian Children's Home to working landscape at a camp out in Colorado. They are required to work a minimum of 280 hours of service. There are also students that have chosen to serve internationally at some point in their college career.

Christmas Time

The little ones and the assistant soccer coach were surprised when Santa showed up for breakfast.

The volleyball team meets at the President's house for his annual Christmas open house.

Union's annual Hanging of the Greens kicks off the December celebrations. The ceremony explains the origins behind decorations. An annual Christmas dinner is provided for the students. It is split into two seatings lasting an hour each. The cafeteria is decorated with the traditional tree and candlelight. Union's Common Partners program provides community service at the college. They host the annual Angel Tree party in December. Union students and faculty sponsor children by purchasing and wrapping gifts for them. CAB hosts the annual Breakfast with Santa which invites local children to meet Santa as well as have a free breakfast, crafts and gifts.

RE: Psi Chi

The purpose of Psi Chi is to "encourage, stimulate, and maintain excellence in scholarship, and to advance the science of psychology."

President-Rachel Millsop
Vice President-Nathan Yaden

Psi Chi collaborated with the counseling center for a service project this year. They organized a traveling literature cart that spent a few days in each dormitory and was stocked with brochures dealing with various psychological problems. They also welcomed two new members this year: Basil Argento and S. Melissa Kissel

PSI CHI serves two major goals: one immediate and visibly rewarding to the individual member, the other slower and more difficult to accomplish, but offering greater rewards in the long run. The first of these is the Society's obligation to provide academic recognition to its inductees by the mere fact of membership. The second goal is the obligation of each of the Society's local chapters to nurture the spark of that accomplishment by offering a climate congenial to members' creative development."

In the summer of 2010, junior Emily Baker participated in the Kentucky Institute for International Studies' (KIIS) Greek program. For an entire month, Emily studied Life and Art in Ancient Greece, "We got a well-rounded idea of Greece; it was really nice to learn bits and pieces of the whole culture," she said. When she wasn't studying, Emily explored the local terrain, shops, and people, "Athens was our favorite because there was a roof top bar; we became really close friends with the bartender Maria, who I still talk to." It was a tie for her favorite part of the trip, "The Theater at Epidaurus was a big deal since I'm a Theater minor. I've been studying this for years and I finally got to go and check out the acoustics. The other one was Delos, the whole island was one big ruin of an ancient city; it was the best preserved ruins we saw." The experience gave Emily a new respect for different cultures and other people, "It opened my eyes."

Aaron Farmer, a sophomore, spent the summer of 2010 in Bregenz, Austria studying German language and culture. Aaron learned a lot from the class he took through the program, but feels he learned more from his experiences outside of the classroom, "I learned so much more from personally talking to the Austrians than anything else." He spent most evenings at the local pub, making many friends he still keeps in touch with. Aaron continued traveling Europe after the program ended, but Austria was one of his favorite countries, "I had a new change in life, I got a new perspective and it broadened my horizons. Basically, I borrowed a lot of their culture and used it to my advantage." Aaron insists, "Send your kids to study abroad at least once if they have the chance to; it's such an amazing opportunity that no one should pass up. I would definitely recommend it for everyone."

Fall Break 2010

Cleveland, Ohio

Aaron was determined to get his picture taken in front of Brown Stadium. He's a huge Browns fan.

The Nehemiah Mission was the church where the group stayed while in Cleveland, OH for fall break.

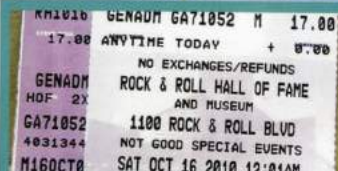

Cee Brown plays with the sound system the church has for services.

It seems that no matter where we take our breaks, fall or spring, one thing that always needs to be done is drywalling.

After a grueling 9 1/2 hour drive from Union to Cleveland the group sits down to a home cooked meal prepared by the people in the church where we stayed.

A trip to Cleveland is not complete without a visit to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. We listened to music and saw personal items of artists.

One of the tasks for the group was to help the community. Here Chris Osborne is seen assessing the stability of a porch.

March 11-20

Spring Break 2011

Bahamas

People on trip: Gabrielle Mellendorf, Nokuzola Mzamane, Ashley Brown, Jodi Carroll, Sarah Dunaway, Aaron McCullom, David Miller, Ashley Shipley.

Alternative Spring Break gives students an opportunity not only to travel but to get something more out of the trip. We partnered with Bahamas Methodist Habitat, an organization that helped the islands of the Bahamas, Haiti and more recently helped Alabama clean up after tornado damage. During this alternative trip away from the resorts and tourists, we saw poverty. Within that poverty we also saw HOPE! The nine staff and students from Union were assigned to a house where the woman was taking care of her elderly mother. She had recently taken in her daughter and grandchildren, and the children of her best friend, who had passed away a few weeks prior. In one week we put a three room addition onto this small house. Our group saw hope in the people we were working with. Their lives are filled with poverty and destruction, yet they have smiles on their faces.—Gabrielle Mellendorf

RE: Interfaith Trips: Knoxville Mosque

Union College sees a special connection between service and spiritual growth; redemption is a social as well as an inner, personal experience. While these Wesleyan emphases define the tradition in which the College stands, the College also recognizes that Christian and other religious traditions see the same or similar connections between intellectual development and spiritual growth. Union College thus seeks to cultivate a learning community in which students, faculty, and staff explore together the intellectual and social dimensions of Christian faith.

Student Support Services

Supplemental Instruction (SI) at Union College is adapted from the University of Missouri at Kansas City. This model of student academic assistance helps students in historically difficult classes master course content while they develop and integrate learning and study strategies. There is no remedial stigma attached to SI since historically difficult courses, rather than high risk students, are targeted.

Amanda Silva finished her volleyball career with great accomplishments. She became the first player in program history to make the NAIA All-American Team twice as she earned an honorable mention in 2009. Silva was named the Appalachian Athletic Conference Libero of the Year and was awarded on the All-AAC First Team and the AAC All-Tournament Team her senior year.

Monica Moreland excelled in setting for the Bulldogs during her four years of playing. Her freshman year started high as she was named NAIA Region XII Player, Setter of the Year, and AAC Player, Setter and Freshman of the Year honors. She finished her career earning multiple ACC weekly honors and helped lead her team to the NAIA Volleyball National Championship Opening Round.

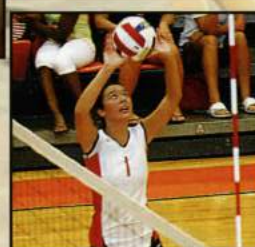

Idaho native, Maddie Peterson, made an effective impact for the Bulldogs during her two year stay. She was named to the AAC All-Academic Team and fought hard with 181 kills her junior year and contributed strength, enthusiasm, and team spirit.

Coach Chuck Coffey

Since it was formed in 1998, the Union Cycling team has focused on mountain biking: cross country, dual slalom, and downhill. During that time, the Bulldogs have won the NCCA Division II National Championship - the first team national championship in school history. Several impressive individual performances by Union riders catapulted the Bulldogs to their first Southeast Collegiate Cycling Conference (SECCC) Championship this year in an event hosted by Georgia Tech. The Union College cycling team ended their 2010 season on a high note registering a second place finish in Division II at the 2010 USA Cycling Collegiate Mountain Bike National Championships.

Union was led at Nationals by senior Rachel Millsop (Little Rock, Ark.), who captured the Division II Women's Omnium. For the men, the Bulldogs had three of the top five finishers in the individual Omnium standings, with Wesley Lamberson (Limestone, Tenn.) finishing second, Zach Winn (Port Hope, Canada) placing fourth and Brad Nelson (Carmel, Ind.) finishing in fifth.

Entrepreneur Ken Ramsey Sends Students 'Out of the Gate' for Historic Year at Union

Keynote speaker Kenneth Lee Ramsey, an Artemus native, Union alumnus and star of the thoroughbred industry, outlined for students the qualities necessary for success as an entrepreneur.

Early in his career he started a lucrative real estate company in Lexington, KY. He entered the cell phone industry in its early days, making him a national-level player and pioneer in that field. Although he still has businesses in real estate and radio, he spends the majority of his time buying, selling, breeding and racing thoroughbred horses around the world.

Spring Convocation

Thursday, January 20, 2011

Conway Boatman Chapel

9:30 a.m.

Union Harmony kicked off Spring Convocation with their rendition of "I'm Gonna Rise."

President Ed de Rossett addresses the audience and prepares to present McKnight with an honorary plaque.

McKnight truly wowed Union with her timeless portrayal of Mrs. Fannie Lou Hamer.

Barbourville Junior Women's Study Club was recognized for their service to the community.

Ms. E.P. McKnight's many theater credits include two one-woman productions, one of which was performed at Union's spring convocation.

"I Question America—Legacy of Mrs. Fannie Lou Hamer" explores the life and contributions of Fannie Lou Hamer, a lesser-known heroine of the civil rights movement. Researched, written and performed by McKnight, the play tracks Hamer's path from plantation worker to national-level advocate for voting and civil rights, including the dangers and violence she experienced along the way.

Authors and Speakers

Union Events Feature Local Talent, Appalachian Culture, and Renowned Speakers

Union College has a slate of arts and cultural events that features everything from riveting choral performances and dramatic live theatre to engaging presentations on topics like basketball, race and Appalachian culture.

The January 20 Spring convocation performance by actress E.P. McKnight in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day was inspiring. Other periodic guests included: Bianca Spriggs Floyd, Martin Marty, Phil Obermiller, Reville Moore Berry and Reuben May.

Union hosted the Redbud Festival on April 8 and 9. Hundreds crowd the campus each year to take advantage of this celebration of traditional Appalachian arts and culture. The festival included appearances by local artists Katie Fawcett, Darrell Fleming, Susan Henson and Regina Bargo.

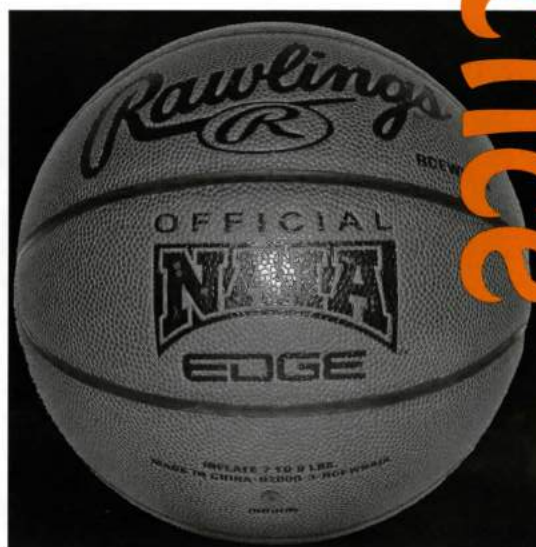

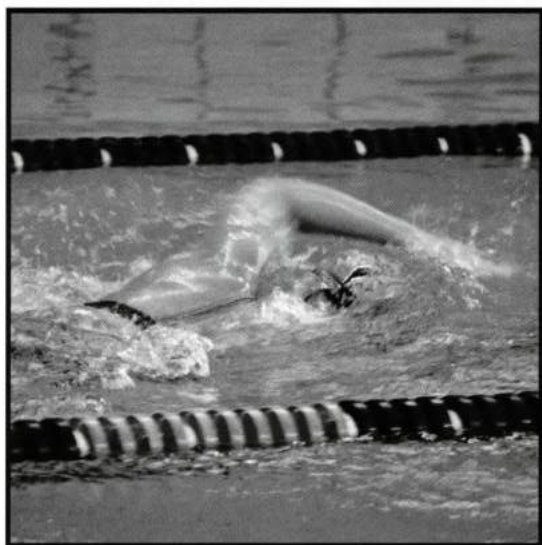

All events are offered as part of Union's commitment to provide an array of arts and cultural events for the campus and local communities.

The 2011 Commencement ceremony closed out the year. Aaron Thompson, Ph.D., was chosen as the featured speaker and honorary degree recipient receiving an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters.

The team and coaches after winning the AAC championship game against Reinhardt

The Union College men's basketball team's 2010-11 season ended on March 9th, 2011 in first round action at the 2011 NAIA Men's Basketball Division II National Basketball Tournament. Their appearance in the tournament marked the first time since 1968 that a Union College men's squad took the floor at a NAIA National Championship. The team also won their first AAC Tournament Championship conference title since 1972 this year, which qualified them for a spot in the tournament. With the loss, Union ended their season at 16-16 overall.

Union sophomore Turrell Morris was named to the third team of the 2010-11 NAIA Division II Men's Basketball All-American Team. Morris was named the AAC's Player of the Week six times during the year and earned NAIA Division II Player of the Week honors on two occasions. Morris was named to the All-AAC first team.

Nathan Beckley and Ryan Young were named to the 2011 Appalachian Athletic Conference's All-Academic team for their work in the classroom. Beckley, a senior guard, earns a spot on the All-Academic squad for the third straight season.

Brent Cork was named to the All-AAC third team, while Cody Miller was named to the league's All-Freshman squad.

What's Up Lady Bulldog Basketball?!

The Union Women's Basketball Team finished the season with a 17-13 record against a tough conference. The team fought hard throughout the season and were always prepared to play their best. Although it ended roughly in Conference, the Lady Bulldogs will surely come back fighting for more next year.

"Picking out a single memory from my time as a Lady Bulldog is impossible because I have shared so many great experiences with teammates and coaches. However, there is a quote I lived by through my career. "Somewhere behind the athlete you've become, the hours of practice, the coaches who push you, and the fans who cheer for you, is the little girl who fell in love with the sport and never looked back. Play for her."

-Maisie Insko

"I had many special memories at Union College but the ones that stood out the most would be senior night, playing my last home game, and the thought of finishing my basketball career."

-Wendi Messer

"My junior year was the best. We had a great team, great players, and as a team we were all great friends. I knew that on and off the court we would always have each other's back and would always be there for each other. The friendships that were built during the years I played ball here will last forever as well as all the memories!"

-Capri Savage

Coach Rafael 'Rafa' Forti

"During the 10-11 season we have obtained the best team results since I started coaching at Union in 05-06. The women finished 8th at Nationals. The men finished 10th at Nationals. On top of that, we have earned 9 All-American Honorable Mentions and 1 All-American First-Team swimming performance. I am very pleased with the way we represented Union this season.

Bottom Row Center: Paschal Glavinios sprints in a Free-style relay;

Assistant Coach Matthew Moon

"My first year coaching was a whole new experience and I learned a lot. This season had a few bumps in the road, but we stepped up when it counted and we ended with a fantastic swim at Nationals, with many exceptional swims."

Right: Matthew Johnson achieves his goal time in the 500 free.

Best Regular Season Ever!

Union finishes the 2011 regular-season as the eighth-ranked team in the NAIA, according to the 2011 NAIA Baseball Coaches' Top 25 Poll. Top-seeded Union took the first step toward making its way to the AVAISTA-NAIA World Series with a 9-4 victory over No. 4 seed Iowa Wesleyan in the 2011 NAIA Baseball National Championship Opening Round - Kingsport Bracket, however they were beaten by the Faulkner Eagles in the next game.

Joe Engle led the nation in doubles with 29, and was ninth in RBIs with 70. Union ace Brandon Hedrick finished the season with 10 wins, and held opponents to a .190 batting average.

Koby Hearn, Corey Throckmorton and Lee Malone were all named Appalachian Athletic Conference Pitcher of the week this season. Koby Hearn, Corey Throckmorton and Cory Perreault were all named Appalachian Athletic Conference Player of the Week this year. It was a red-letter day for No. 8 Union as the Bulldogs swept the Appalachian Athletic Conference doubleheader from visiting Milligan (Tenn.) by the scores of 6-4 and 3-1, capturing the conference regular-season championship as well as their 40th win of the season.

This is the sixth 40-win season under Osborne and the seventh in program history. Union head baseball coach Bart Osborne collected his 300th career victory this year as well.

Nicole Bistline of Frankfort, KY was named to the Academic All-Appalachian Athletic Conference Team as a sophomore, unable to play junior year she came back for a solid season this year. "It was tough coming back as a senior when I was never with the team for any consecutive years. Luckily, I love the game and my teammates, so that ensured a fun season."

Ximena Aguilar, Jessica Aldrich, Nicole Bistline, Meredith Dambrus, Aurelie Hascoet, Patricia Nardy, Jessica Presley, Mackenzie Prichard, Diane Proteau, Marah Rice

Ximena Aguilar of Morelia, Mexico spent four years as a Bulldog during which she was named to the All-Appalachian Athletic Conference Team multiple times as well as to the ACC Champions of Character and Sportsmanship Teams.

Nicolas Ernst of Riethem, Germany has had very impressive seasons. During his two years he was named the ITA Region III Player to Watch, and the Appalachian Athletic Conference Player of the Year. In addition to this he was a member of the All-AAC First Team and the AAC All-Academic Team.

"The Union College Men's Tennis Program gave me a chance to grow to my full potential, academically as well as athletically, and I certainly took advantage of it. I enjoyed my time here at Union, being a member of an extraordinarily close team, and I can clearly say that those experiences are favourable in my future life."

Kealsey Gregory and Keyten

Feiara Foster and Keidence

"Being a mother is one of the most exciting and stressful experiences of my life. Everyday there is always something new. Whether it be teaching him new words or changing him. The best thing about being a mom is him, especially when I go to pick him up from daycare and he drops everything he is doing and comes running for me. The bad parts about being a mom... Well there really aren't any, but I hate it when he gets sick. Every day is a new adventure and I have loved every minute of it and thank God that Keyten is in my life."

"Most people know me by Fee and my little daughter as Kha-kha and together we rule the world. Most people didn't even think I would go to college, but I did. I am a sophomore and Keidence has been with me since second semester freshman year. It is hard sometimes because I also run track but with God and many friends I make it. I think that having Keidence here has helped a great deal. Most times, she's the reason for my smile, sometimes she's the reason for my attitude, but I love her regardless. College has changed our lives and we've met people that we will never forget. I love proving people wrong in that I am making it in college. 2 years down and 2 years to go."

RE: COMMUTERS

The Shires By John Fuller

Bedfordshire

A blue bird showing off its undercarriage
En route between our oldest universities
Was observed slightly off-course above Woburn
In the leafy heart of our sleepest county:
Two cyclists in tandem looked up at the same moment,
Like a busy footnote to its asterisk.

COMMUTER

He lives in a house in the suburbs
He rises each morning at six
He runs for the bus to the station,
Buys his paper and looks at the pics.
He always gets in the same carriage,
Puts his briefcase up on the rack.
Thinks miserably of his office,
And knows he can never turn back.
He gets to his desk by nine thirty,
Wondering what he should do.
When the coffee break comes at eleven,
He knows he still hasn't a clue.
His lunch break is quite uninspiring
He sits it out in the canteen
It's fish and chips, mince or potatoes,
A choice that's quite literary obscene.
At five he runs back to the station,
Gets in the same carriage again,
Unfolds his evening paper,
Pulls a veil down over his brain.

"Since my arrival in this country I have been given many opportunities. Now it is time to pass those same opportunities to my athletes. It is my ultimate goal that these students aspire to the professional level of the athletes they admire. I see my team as a family and like any family the bonds that we forge will be ever lasting. With these bonds, they as well as myself will grow stronger."

The Origins of Baccalaureate

The baccalaureate service is believed to have originated at Oxford University in England in the mid-15th century. The first services were academic exercises in which recipients of bachelor degrees delivered sermons in Latin. Over time the service has evolved into a general celebration marking the completion of an undergraduate academic career.

Technology at Union College

Union College, a small liberal arts college in Barbourville, Kentucky, is known as "Kentucky's First College in the Mountains." Located in central Appalachia, Union faces geographical isolation, but not technological isolation. Thanks in part to the dedication of the Black Technology Center staff, the help of federal funding and the early transition to fiber optics, Barbourville was named the nation's "Best Little Wired City" in 1998 by Yahoo! Internet Live Magazine.

"Planning for technology is a continuous process. This is the future and we must prepare for it." -Former Union College Vice President for Administration, Ed Black

The Black Technology Center staff offer troubleshooting for all types of technology. Seen above, technician Jesse Barton helps a student connect her iPhone to Union's wireless network.

Brief History

In 1996, the public emergence of the Internet strongly interested Union College, galvanizing efforts to build a strong technological presence on campus. Through the approval of a Title 3 Grant, Union was able to develop its first network. In 1997, the college's website was launched (<http://www.unionky.edu>), establishing Union Online and broadening its reach beyond the mountains to the rest of the world. By 1998, Union's existing technicians had reached their load capacity. New user and network support technicians were hired to help the program progress, but also to provide upkeep and support for the already existing technology on campus (both in and out of the classroom).

Current Projects

The technology department has recently applied for a grant similar to the one that initially created it. Such funding would allow for upgrades to the 30 servers that keep Union's Barbourville and London, KY campuses wired. The Title 3 Grant would also expand the college's registry of online classes, and provide more technicians to ensure the continuation of services. This would help generate more infrastructure support for the many services available, which include wireless internet access, data phones, cable television, web databases for email and MyUnion, and the maintenance of fiber optic cables. Union's London, Kentucky campus, The Bennett Center, is completely wired into Barbourville, despite it being nearly 40 miles away.

Creating and maintaining visual and audio media is another vital process at Union College. Above, Electronic Media Coordinator Dennis Liford observes his work in process.

I was in charge of the Summer Orientation, Welcome Weekend, Circles, and Fall Convocation pages. All the events I personally attended so it meant a lot to me getting to design and create something I was apart of. This was my first year on yearbook staff and I must say I experienced first hand all the hard work and planning that goes into the yearbook but enjoyed every minute of it. Hope you enjoy my pages! -- Maisie Insko

Rachel Millsop

I only did two total pages for the Wilderness Club, but I have a lot of respect for the people that put the time and effort in to make this yearbook look as good as it does. Even though I did two pages, it was tough so I can only imagine the tedious effort that goes into making a ton of these pages.

Thank you to Dr. Ellen Williams, Regina Shackelford, Gabby Mellendorf, Dr. Gay Gandy for their input on pages for clubs and organizations.

Thank you to: Dr. Christine Marley-Frederick, yearbook advisor

In yearbook I learned about the importance of time-management, communication, and planning. I am certain my time on the staff will prove instrumental to my success in any field.
-Shaina Thomas

A very special thanks to: Jay Stancil, Dr. Candy Wood, Missy Frederick, Gabby Mellendorf, and Brenna Wallahusser for use of their photographs.

Thank you to: Jerry Jackson and Missy Frederick and the students in their layout and design classes for doing some of the pages.

I had a lot of fun working with everyone in yearbook. For the pages I did, or contributed to (even though it wasn't much) I got to learn a lot about everyone.--Cortni

Cody Thompson-"This is my second year working on yearbook pages and this year was a lot more hands on than last year. I really had fun this year because I was able to go and take the pictures of FCA, SAAC, and SGA myself. I also am very close to most of the people on the pages I created and I was fortunate to get these pages this year."

Ashley Poore-While working on the yearbook pages I was able to experience different athletic games and school functions and get to know more students at UC. I enjoyed putting my creativity to work while designing pages for the yearbook. Even though the yearbook room is small, the design program is aggravating, my countless hours working on the pages were successful! I wouldn't trade my yearbook experience for anything because I met and worked with great people and had a blast!

Chris Osborne-I believe that the yearbook is something that needs to exist, if for nothing else to serve as a reminder decades down the road at what great times one had while in college.

Jeree Boles- "I have really enjoyed working on the yearbook this year. I worked on men's soccer, men's basketball, softball and graduation and had a wonderful time doing so. :-)"

"I had fun working for the yearbook. It was really cool learning to make pages from scratch. i hope continue to get better and to learn more next year in class."-Eric Kinman

As one of the missions in Round 2 of the game, all humans had to sign in at the Student Center once a day. Cortni Thrasher, Cassy Kost, Kayleen Hiatt, and Brad Nelson take no chances of becoming a zombie as they sign in as a group.

Once turned, zombies Sean Trinque and Brad Nelson run in full stride after the humans in search of brains.

The Human vs. Zombies game was first invented by Brad Snappington and Chris Weed in 2005 at Goshen College. The game quickly spread to over 200 colleges in the U.S. and throughout the world.

The year 2011 marked the first year that Union College played this strategic game. The enthusiasm of the students playing the game was so great that the first game (Round 1) only lasted 36 hours instead of the week that was scheduled and had over 60 participants. Round 2 lasted for three days and was played by around 80 students.

Shawn Spoon talks strategy with his fellow humans before a zombie attack.

Austin Sebald (a.k.a zombie) waits in a doorway for his prey.

Aaron Farmer, Cody Kost, and Bennett Winn make a heroic last stand on the football field but are eventually overwhelmed.

Steven Middleton, Cody Kost, Cortni Thrasher, and Chris Adams travel together to class so they don't get attacked by zombies.

One of the Human missions was to protect Jerry Jackson, but in the end it was a trap. Unknown to his protectors he was actually an "infected one" and managed to convert two innocent humans to Zombies. Screaming his famous saying, "I can not be killed" as others tried to stun him, he was unsuccessful in catching any more humans.

Chris Osborne serves as lookout from the tower.
